12. Publication of list of valid contesting candidates.— After the specified date for scrutiny / withdrawal of nominations, the Returning Officer shall prepare a list of contesting candidates in Form-V and publishes the same in the Authority Website and a copy shall be made available on Notice Board of the Authority.

13. Unanimously elected.— After the time fixed for withdrawal is over if the number of candidates whose nomination papers are deemed valid and have not withdrawn the candidature in the manner and within the time specified, does not exceed the number of candidates to be elected as members, the Returning Officer shall forthwith make a declaration that the said candidates are deemed to have been elected unanimously.

14. Election to be held.— If the number of candidates whose nomination papers are deemed as valid exceeds the number of candidates to be elected as members, the Returning Officer shall proceed to conduct an election by secret ballot process.

15. Manner of filling insufficient representation.— In the absence of / insufficient number of contesting candidates under “Large Industry” category the respective seats/seat set aside for this category shall be filled by the candidates under “Medium and Small Industries” category through election.

16. Procedure for the conduct of elections.—(1) Polling will be conducted on the date and time specified on the Notification in Form-I at the Board Room of the Authority.

(2) Each member shall cast their vote to elect Five (5) members of which Two (2) shall be for Large Industry and the remaining Three (3) for Medium and Small Industries.

(3) The following procedure shall be adopted in conducting the elections, namely.-

- (a) the Returning Officer shall read out the names of all the candidates who have been duly nominated as entered in Form V;
 (b) at the place set apart for voting, the Returning Officer shall provide a ballot box which shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be introduced therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom without the box being opened;
 (c) the Returning Officer shall immediately before the votes are taken, show the ballot box empty to such members as may be present, so that they may see that it is empty and then shall lock it up, and place his seal upon it in such a manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking such seal;
 (d) every member wishing to vote shall be supplied with a ballot paper in Form VI in bearing the seal of the Authority and the signature of the Returning Officer and on which the names of all the contesting candidates are printed, typed or written in English. At the time of issuing a ballot paper to a member, the Returning Officer shall record the serial number thereof against the entry relating to the member in the copy of the list of members kept for the purpose.
 (e) the member to whom a ballot paper is issued under clause (d) shall on receipt of the ballot paper proceed to the place set apart for the purpose and there place a mark (X) against the name of the candidate for whom he wishes to vote; and he shall then fold the ballot paper so as to conceal his vote and insert it into the ballot box;
 (f) the Returning Officer shall cause such arrangements to be made as to prevent the members who have already voted from having access to the members who are yet to vote;
 (g) a member who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may on returning it to the Returning Officer and on satisfying him of the inadvertence, be given another ballot paper and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked “spoilt cancelled” by the Returning Officer. If a member after obtaining a ballot paper decides not to use it he / she shall return it to the Returning Officer and the ballot paper so returned shall be marked as “Returned Cancelled” by the Returning Officer. All ballot papers cancelled under this clause shall be kept in a separate packet.

17. Counting of Votes.- (1) After the polling is completed the Polling Officer shall open in the presence of members present the ballot box, count the number of ballot papers taken out there from and scrutinise the ballot paper and separate those which in his opinion are valid from those which in his opinion is invalid, endorsing on the latter the word "rejected" and ground of rejection and arrange valid paper in a bundle.

(2) The Returning Officer shall reject a ballot paper.-

(a) if it bears any mark or writing by which elector can be identified; or

(b) if no vote is recorded thereon ; or

(c) if votes are given on it in favour of more than five candidate; or

(d) if the mark indicating the vote thereon is placed in such a manner as to make it doubtful to which candidate the vote has been given; or

(e) if it is a surplus ballot paper: Provided that a ballot paper shall not be rejected merely on the ground that the mark indicating the vote is indistinct or made more than once if the intention that the vote shall be for a particular candidate clearly appears from the way the paper is marked

(3) Before rejecting any ballot paper under this rule the Returning Officer shall allow each candidate a reasonable opportunity to inspect the ballot paper but shall not allow him to handle it or any other ballot paper

(4) Every ballot paper which is not rejected shall be counted as one valid vote. After the completion of the counting the Returning Officer shall record in a statement the total number of votes polled by each candidate and announce the same

(5) After such announcement has been made, the Returning Officer may either on his / her own initiative or at the instance of any candidate recounts the vote:

Provided that nothing herein contained shall make it obligatory on the Returning Officer to recount the same votes more than once.

When a recount of votes is made under this sub-rule the Returning Officer shall amend the statement referred in the sub-rule (4) to the extent necessary after such recount and announce the amendment so made by him/her.

18. Use of electronic voting machine.- The Authority may Adopt election method by using electronic voting machine machine with suitable arrangements.

19. Declaration of results.- The election Results shall be declare in Form VII when the seat is uncontested and Form VIII – (when the seat is contested.

(a) The candidate who has secured the largest number of valid votes shall be declared as elected.

(b) If equality is found to exist between candidates to be declared elected the Returning Officer shall forthwith decide between these candidates by drawing of lots and the candidate in whose favour the lot falls shall be considered to have received an additional vote.

20. Code of Conduct.- Candidates can reach out to the voters through electronic mail and physical meetings. No banners, posters or stickers can be put up on any public space of the Authority. Candidates cannot occupy any public space during campaigning.

21. Casual Vacancies.- (a) When a casual vacancy arises in the Authority as a result of the represented industry ceasing to function in the Authority the Chief Executive Officer, shall give notice of such vacancies within Seven (7) days from the date of its occurrence (if the remaining term of the Committee is more than half of its original term) to the Urban Development Department. The Urban Development Department shall conduct elections within 60 days from the date it is notified about the occurrence of any casual vacancy in order to fill-up such vacancy in the same manner.

(b) In case of death of the candidate /disability/transfer/moving out of industry /withdrawal of the member by the parent organization, another representative can then be nominated from the same industry. However the candidate should be approved by the Authority, provided that no election shall be held to fill a casual vacancy occurring within Six (6) months prior to the expiry of the term of member of the Authority.

22. Election of Chairperson.- As soon as election results of members of the Authority is published the Chief Executive Officer shall publish the date time and place of first meeting of the Authority. In the first meeting so called, the election of the Chairperson of the Authority shall be held. The Chairperson shall be elected among the members elected by simple majority of total members. The nomination shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another member. In case nomination is not more than one, such member shall be declared as elected unanimously. In case nomination is more than one candidate the election shall be held among members elected in a democratic simple election by simple majority. A person getting more number of votes shall be declared elected as Chairperson of the Authority by resolution and such resolution of the Authority shall be sent to The Government by the Chief Executive Officer.

23. Record of proceedings.- Immediately after the election the Returning Officer shall.-

(a) prepare a record of the proceeding of the election and sign it, attesting with his initials every correction made therein; and also permit any member present at the election to affix his signature to such record, if he expresses his desire to do so;

(b) forward the name of the person elected as Chairperson to the Government for publication in the Official Gazettee.

24. Sealing and custody of election paper.- (1) The Returning Officer shall then make up into separate packets the marked copy of the list members, the ballot papers relating to each candidate whether counted or rejected, seal up each packet and note thereon the description of its contents, the election to which it relates and the date thereof.

(2) These packets shall not be opened and their contents shall not be inspected or produced before any person or authority except under the orders of the State Government or a Competent Court.

(3) The packets shall be retained in safe custody by the Returning Officer at the office of the Authority for a period of one year from the date of declaration of result of election and shall thereafter be destroyed unless a direct to the contrary is given by the State Government or a Competent Court.

25. Dispute regarding election.- (1) The validity of the election of a member may be called in question by a petition presented to the State Government by any candidate at such election within fifteen days from the date of publication of the declaration of the results by the State Government in the Official Gazette.

(2) Every petition under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied by as many copies thereof as there are respondents mentioned in the petition and every such copy shall be attested by the petitioner under his own signature to be a true copy of the petition.

(3) The petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition all the candidates at the election, where the petitioner in addition to claiming a declaration that the election of the returned candidate is void claims a further declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected, all the contesting candidates other than the petitioner, and where no such further declaration is claimed shall be deemed as returned candidates.

(4) A petition under sub-rule (1),-

(a) shall contain a concise statement of material facts on which the petition relies;

(b) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act V of 1908) for the verification of pleadings;
