

Girirajan Maignanam

Senior Director – Global Support - Global Business Operations, HPE Services

Giri has been with Hewlett Packard Enterprise since 1997. During his 25+ years with HPE, he has played a variety of roles, starting with Manufacturing, Support, Escalation Management, in HPE Singapore and India.

Giri was instrumental in setting up High End Enterprise support and Proactive Delivery in HPE India. Enabled global transitions and transformation for improving Cost of Operation, Customer Experience and Loyalty for UK&I, INDIA Customers. After a short stint as a Director for Global Competency Center, moved on to Lead North America delivery providing 85% of Support from Bangalore to HPE's Enterprise customers across US and Canada.

Delivered many industry orientation talks for university faculties and new services introduction. Speaker in Young Employee Network and Represented in Audits.

Giri is known for his outstanding Partnership with Global Organizations, connect with People, Strong Operational Leadership. His rich experience contributed to many Cost Avoidance and Improved Experience for the organization.

Giri's other Interests include People development, Wellness, Service. Born & raised in Bangalore, lives with his better half Devi and daughter Sanju budding architect focused on sustainability and heritage restoration.
